

Kate Hagerty is a certified Life Purpose, Relationship and Grief Intuitive Coach. She is also a gifted intuitive and certified Graphologist. After spending over 30 years in corporate America and realizing that she was not only on the wrong rung, but the wrong ladder, Kate took a leap of faith to seek her own life's purpose.

Today, Kate is a speaker, author, trainer and coach, and is passionate about helping professionals who feel disconnected and are painfully aware that "something is missing" in their lives. Kate guides entrepreneurs, business owners and change leaders to discover their life's true purpose and realize that they, too, can fly.

Kate lives in Denver where she embraces her love of the great outdoors through running, hiking and skiing, and her weakness for dark chocolate, wine and dogs (but not necessarily in that order). To invite Kate to speak at your event, please visit soulpurpose.biz.
