

Mandy Mackowiak enjoys Colorado living in Castle Pines with her husband, two children, and Labrador. She believes in celebrating the little things, embracing one's own path, and the beauty of pursuing dreams. Mandy is passionate about uplifting others. She will soon complete yoga teacher training as a way to honor and give back. In addition to her Financial Services career, Mandy has recently started her own company with a mission to connect and uplift.

