

Venetia Rose was born in Pasadena, California, and moved to Denver, Colorado in 2005 after meeting her husband to be in 2004.

Venetia is a budding writer, intuitive and healer who has been searching on a spiritual path for over 10 years. She has done much work to release trauma from her childhood, including 12 step programs, journaling and energy work.

Venetia loves to write poetry, sing harmony and is continuing to explore her creative nature with painting. She also loves to play golf and take walks with her dog, Tigger.

Venetia is particularly drawn to vibrational and energy healing. She is attuned to Reiki level II, and looks forward to becoming Reiki Master in the near future. It is her dream to share the emotional healing she has had in her life with others.
