

Marcia Pinkstaff, Director with Touchstone Crystal by Swarovski, is a breast cancer survivor. She is a mom to 2 beautiful crazy dogs, Brutus & Scarlett and lives in Parker, Colorado. Originally from Oregon, Ohio she is an alum of Miami University, in Oxford, Ohio where she graduated with a Bachelor of Arts Degree. She shares her story of courage and faith facing the hardest fight of her life. She was diagnosed with Micropapillary Invasive Ductal Carcinoma, Stage 3 just 6-7 short months after a completely clear mammogram.

She has faced many challenges in her life and continues to thrive while empowering and inspiring others through her business and life. She has been invited to speak at various organizations, both professional and fundraisers for Breast Cancer Awareness such as Living Beyond Breast Cancer and Castle Rock Adventist Hospital.

Her chapter is a "Cliff Note" version as she has so much more to share and will be writing a book in the near future.
