

Michele Johns is a Colorado based fine art photographer. After starting her photography career in 2012, her style of fine art boudoir and headshot photography has earned her multiple awards, including the 2018 Best of the Best Photographer, Castle Rock, CO. Michele creates a fun, safe and comfortable photography experience with the goal of creating beautiful timeless art for her clients. For boudoir clients, Michele helps them celebrate their body and find a new level of body confidence through their boudoir experience.

When not in her photography studio, Michele loves to travel wherever there is a beach, tend to her small garden and cook for her family. To hire Michele for photography services or to speak at your event, please contact her through michelejohns.com.
